Sir,

In continuation of this office letter No.205/B.2 dated 8-10-42 forwarding a list of points of doubts felt by the Audit Sections of my office in applying the Government Order No.Fl.2156-2215 S&A 136-42-1 dated 25-9-42 sanctioning enhanced rates of dearness allowance, I have the honor to state that the Assistant Engineer, Buildings Range, Bangalore, has requested this office to intimate whether the dearness allowance forms part of salary for the calculation of house rent.

As per para 135 Rule I(b) Mysore Public Works Account Code, the term salary for purpose of calculation of rent is interpreted as including all emoluments drawn by an occupant of a Government building excluding only travelling allowance, conveyance allowances and tentage and as such it is not clear whether the dearness allowance has also to be included under emoluments for the purpose of calculating the house rent. As the intention of Government in granting the dearness allowance is to afford relief in a specific direction on account of the rise in prices of the necessities of life, I am of opinion that it is not fair to deduct one-tenth of this special allowance by including it under salary for purposes of levying the house rent. I request definite orders of Government on this point also at an early date.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. Viraraja Urs
